Proceedings of the Court of Admiralty Under date the January 1876.

Read the following Proceedings of the Court of Admiralty.

Copy to Collector Proceedings of Court forwarding the Draft Decree of Mortgage of Admiral's Estate in Hon.
Domicile as finally revised by the Advocate General Hon.

(H.C. 222 Decr 1875 No. 3416)

It does not appear what is the special form of endorsement to which the Court refer in para 2. They have had before them in the very same order of Government to which they refer, the form of endorsement prescribed by the Advocate General and Govt Pleader,

Believe that revised and

and as it requires an acknowledgement in full satisfaction of all claims on the estate, the Court's presumption that "a simple acknowlege-ment of the receipt of the sums paid to the several creditors will suffice" is not correct.

perify for the Rev
note

The Advocate General's office does not appear to have been informed of the Board of Revenue have received their Proceedings. There is an opinion however that the Board of Revenue sent revised Proceedings —

Proceedings of the Court of Wards dated 22^d December 1875.

Read Government Order dated 20 December 1875 No 1824 Communicating to the Board of Revenue letter from the Government Secretary forwarding the Draft Deed of Mortgage relating to Ramnad Zemindari with the necessary alterations and requesting them to arrange for the payment of the Advocate General's fee. Intimating that the Deed should be completed and submitted for signature without delay.

Communicated to the Collector of Madras whose

attention is called to the instructions of Government in G.O. dated 12th November 1875 N° 1635. The Deed, as revised by the Law Officers, should be executed by the Manager and submitted for signature with as little delay as possible.

2. The Collector will observe that the endorsement of the Creditors, who have received payment of their Claims, is still considered necessary and their acknowledgments must therefore be obtained unless there is some insuperable obstacle in which case the Collector should make a note as to the cause of the omission. He will be careful to

to adhere to the form of endorsement furnished by the Law Officers.

3. The Collector will remit direct to the Government Police from the funds of the Revenue and Estate the fee payable to the Advocate General.
