MISCELLANEOUS No. 9,773.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE, dated 13th November 1876.

Read the following :—

Proceedings of the Madras Goveanmeut, Revenne Department.

Read the following :—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 28th September 1876 Miscellaneaus No. 8,291.

Read again letter from the Accountant-General, dated 26th June 1876, No. 3,099, recorued in Board's Proceedings, dated 31st August 1876, Miscellaneous No. 7,441.

Read also Board's Proceedings, dated 20th July 1876, No. 6,151 and the Accountant-General's letter, dated 22nd July 1876, No. 3,987 ; also the order of Government of India, dated 8th May 1876, No. 171.

THE above papers relate to the grant of deputation allowances to officers acting for absentees on privilege leave on receipt of Rupees 100 a-month and more.

2. In the Notifications, dated 13th April and 24th August 1869, the Government directed that their sanction should be obtained for arrangements involving additional expenditure to the State consequent on the grant of leave to uncovenanted officers. Ever since, applications for deputation allowances in such cases have been submitted for the sanction of Government even after the revised Acting Allowance Code came into operation. In the first of the letters quoted at the head of these Proceedings the Accountant-General informed the Board on the 26th June 1876 that the sanction of Government was not necessary for passing deputation allowances in cases in which the pay of the absentee abroad 100 Rupees a month, as Section (13), Supplement R and the proviso under Section 22 of the Acting Allowance Code, do not apply. On being asked on what recent authority his opinion was based, the Accountant-General referred to the orders of the Government of India, dated 8th May 1876, No. 171.

3. The communication quoted is not a direct ruling on the point but the Board consider that an application to Government for deputation allowance in each case may be dispensed with. The provisions of the Leave and Acting Allowance Codes authorise the payment of deputation allowance to officers acting for absentees on privilege leave in receipt of salaries in excess of Rupees 100, and applications for the same are now merely formal.

4. Under the circumstances, the Board request the orders of Government as to whether instructions may be issued that when privilege leave is granted to subordinates drawing Rupees 100 and more deputation allowance may be granted to the acting incumbents under the rules without any application to Government.

Acting Secretary.

ORDER THEREON, 7th October 1876, No. 1,440.

The Board's proposal is approved and sanctioned.

(True Extract.

Signed D. F. CARMICHAEL,
Secretary to Government.

THE above papers will be communicated to all Collectors for information and guidance.

2. It will be observed that when privilege leave is granted to officers with pay not less than Rupees 100 a month, deputation allowance can be granted to the acting incumbents without the sanction of Government. Applications for these allowances therefore need not be submitted to the Board in future.
