~~Read the following letter~~ to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 20 November 1876, No 2084

The Governor in Council directs that as it is deemed of importance to retain Mr. F. Rice's services for the present in the Famine Stricken Districts, that officer shall, while so employed, draw pay at the rate claimable by an Acting Collector of a District to which position his junior, Mr. Conyer, has this day been appointed.
