Budget Estimate.

No. 141. Read the following letter, from Lieut.-Colonel C. S. HEARN, Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 2nd November 1876, No. 4858:—

I have the honor to forward two Budget Estimates of the Madras Police for 1877-78.

1. Rural Executive Police	RS. 17,042	2. The estimate of the Provincial Services amounts to Rupee 38,69,972 against Rupees 36,26,413 for 1876-77, exceeding the latter by Rupees 43,559, as particularized in the margin.
2. Jail Guard	19,158
3. Guard under the Contagious Diseases Act	3,030
4. Subsidiary Jail, &c.	3,300
5. Miscellaneous Charges	22,307
	64,837
Deduct.
6. Service Processes	21,278
	43,559
	Net Rupees

Arcot Force on account of Police of the Chedumbarum Municipal Town, as per G.O., No. 1318, of 26th July 1876, Judicial Department. The estimate of 1877-78 includes the provision of two Special Inspectors appointed for the detection of dacoities in South Arcot and Madura, agreeably to Order of Government, No. 1017, dated 29th April 1875, Judicial Department.

Second.—In consequence of the large number of prisoners in confinement it has been necessary to increase the estimate for Jail guards.

Third.—G.O., No. 919, dated 15th August 1876, Public Department, sanctions the enlistment of Police guard* for detecting breaches of the Contagious Diseases Act, No. 14 of 1868, in Military Cantonments. Hence this charge is entered for the first time in the estimate.

* Head Constables	No. 6
Constables	13

Fourth.—Agreeably to the sanction of Government, No. 1599, of 27th July 1876, Judicial Department, a temporary addition of seventeen constables of all grades for the Parvatapore Hill Jail in Vizagapatam District is calculated for 1877-78. This increase together with increases† in North Arcot and Ganjam for charge of Subsidiary Jails make up the sum shown in the margin against the head of Subsidiary Jails.

Fifth.—The item of Miscellaneous Charges consists of several petty sums, viz., Clothing and Packing, House-rent, Horse, to supply casualties in Town

Police, and other contingent charges. These are of a fluctuating nature. The estimate of 1877-78 is based on the average of actuals of the past three years.

Sixth.—As regards the service of processes the decrease of Rupees 21,278 exhibited in the margin is owing to the provision of Rupees 4,000 only against Rupees 61,278 for 1876-77 passed in the Madras G.O., No. 1503, of 27th December 1875. Financial Department. The reduced amount (as sanctioned by the Government of India in their Secretary's letter, No. 2671, dated 15th September 1876, and recorded in Madras G.O., No. 1955, of 26th September 1876, Judicial Department) has been entered in the estimate of 1877-78, pending orders on letter from the Inspector-General of Police, No. 4416, dated 4th October 1876, on the subject which is now under consideration of Government.

Grand Total ...	38,20,153	38,73,307

3. The Budget Estimate of the Imperial Services (Police Salt Guard Establishment) for 1877-78 amounts to Rs. 2,03,335 against Rupees 1,93,740 for 1876-77, exceeding the latter by Rupees 9,595. This increase is chiefly due to the provision of temporary Police guard* enlisted for the salt fish curing enclosures, agreeably to the Orders of Government, Nos. 576, dated 12th April 1875, and 503, dated 14th March 1866, Financial Department, as also to readjustment of, and additions made to, the several Salt Establishments in Nellore, Vizagapatam, Godavery, and Tanjore, as per orders noted in the margin.

4. The total Police cost of the two Budgets (Provincial and Imperial Services) for 1877-78 amounts to Rupees 38,73,307 against Rs. 38,20,153, showing a difference of Rupees 53,154, as explained with details under the respective heads of charges.

No. 142.

ORDER THEREON, 17th November 1876, No. 2062.

The Inspector-General of Police submits the Budget Estimate of Receipts and Charges for the year 1877-78. The advance of the estimate adopted for 1876-77.

2. CHARGES.—The Inspector-General explains the excess in the charges over the estimate for the current year, but the annexed statement shows at one view the strength and cost of the Police under its several subdivisions:—

3. The allotment for 1876-77, made in G.O., dated the 27th December 1875, No. 2503, for the Police Force, including Salt guards, but exclusive of the charge (Rupees 3,036) for guards for working the Contagious Diseases Act in Military Cantonments, was Rupees 36,60,000. The estimate for 1877-78 exclusive of the charge (Rupees 2,03,335) for Salt guards amounts to Rupees 36,69,972, or Rupees 69,972 in excess of the allotment.

4. The charge for General Supervision shows a decrease of Rupees 1,400 as compared with the estimate for 1876-77, owing to the charge for "House-rent," which amounted in 1875-76 to Rs. 2,002 being saved by the purchase of the building occupied by the office of the Inspector-General of Police. Compared with the expenditure in 1875-76, the estimate for 1877-78 is Rupees 8,754 in excess.

Guards—For working Contagious Diseases Act in Military Cantonments

The first and second items exceed both past expenditure and estimates. The third is a new item and will be dealt with as directed in G.O., dated 15th August 1876, No. 919 (Public).

7. The Inspector-General will be requested to furnish Government with a memorandum showing the charge for guards for Treasuries, &c., from 1869-70 to 1877-78.

8. The Governor in Council, judging from past expenditure and allowing for probable savings, is of opinion that an allotment of Rupees 35,50,000 will be sufficient for 1877-78.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Financial Department, 17th November 1876. No. 2062.

9. The estimate for Salt guards will be transferred to the Revenue Department for disposal and inclusion in the Imperial Civil Budget.
