Public Department.

PROCEEDINGS of the MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

READ the following letter from the Acting Collector of ~~Madras~~ ^{Madras}
to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 20th November 1876,
No. 599.

I have the honor to request that Government will be pleased to give Messrs Brett and Stanborough the loan of a tent each. They have no tents of their own and it is not worth their while to buy new tents as their tenure of employment under Government is so uncertain.

Order thereon 4th December 1876, No 1353

The Superintendent, Tent
Equipage Department, will be directed in the Military Department to forward to Joty in communication with the Collector two of the recently purchased tents now in his charge.

Very Extract

W. A. S. S. S.
Chief Secretary.
