proceeds of Confiscated timber to their proper head in the accounts in supersession of the practice, obtaining before, of keeping the amount in deposit pending settlement of rewards &c. on the adjustment of which the balance was carried to the credit of Government. The change of system puts me under the necessity of requesting you to be good enough to transfer Rs. 100 from I.1(a) to I.3 in the current year's Budget to enable enable me to pay rewards to informants. I have no other alternative than to make this suggestion as, under the departmental rules, Forest Officers are prohibited from receiving any money whether on account of Seigniorage or Sale of Confiscated timber &c. I further request that a sum of Rs. 200 from General Savings may be sanctioned to be carried to I.3 in the Budget Estimate for 1877-78
