From W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Punganoor, 18th June 1875.

Statement of Lapsed Punji Dehat Inam recommended for Renewal in the District of North Arcot.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 11th January 1876.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.—Copy of Notice published in District Gazette.

From J. A. MARJORIBANKS, Esq., Deputy Collector in charge of the Treasury, to W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, dated Chittoor, 15th September 1875, No. 807.

With reference to your footnote, dated 23rd ultimo, to the Board's Official Memorandum, dated 18th idem, No. 1,324, I have the honor to inform you that the arrears of allowance due to the deceased Jaynub Sahiba for 1870 and 1871 were not disbursed to her as she proceeded to Salem without claiming the arrears and without obtaining at first leave. She applied from Salem for the leave which was granted to her in the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 4th January 1872.

2. She was prevented from returning to this district on the expiration of her leave as she lost her sight, and was subject to attacks of paralysis.

3. The fact of the death at Salem of Jaynub Sahiba is supported by the evidence of the individuals noted in the margin, and the date of her death, viz., the 18th April 1874, is confirmed by a certificate granted by the Municipality of Salem Town.

2. This allowance of Rupees 26 a-year is in arrears since March 1870 owing to the absence of the incumbent at Salem, where she is reported to have died in April 1874.

3. The grant is hereditary, and, of the persons mentioned in column 7 of the statement, Kurushath Bee (3), daughter of the deceased, is the next heir. The Board accordingly recommend the continuance to her of the allowance with arrears.

Miscellaneous.

The pensionary allowance of Rs. 26 per annum referred to in these Proceedings is one held on hereditary tenure, having been granted in lieu of a resumed grant of land.

Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 11th January 1876.

2. The last holder, Jaynub Sahiba, widow of the great-grandson of the original grantee, died in April 1874, and the Board of Revenue recommend the continuance of the pension to her daughter, Kurushath Bee,* as next heir to the deceased under the Mahomedan law, but this individual is one of those relations of the deceased whose whereabouts is reported by the Collector to be unknown. The only two claimants who have appeared and preferred claims to the pension are a daughter-in-law† (son's widow) and a grandson‡ (daughter's son) of the deceased; and the Collector has recommended that the pension should be continued to the former.

3. It is to be observed, however, that the grandson, the other of the two forthcoming claimants, is the son of the surviving daughter, the next heir to the deceased above referred to, whose whereabouts is said not to be known. It seems somewhat strange that it should not be possible to ascertain from the son the real cause of the mother's disappearance. Inquiries will be made specifically on this point, and the result reported; if it be found that the mother is either dead or is not forthcoming under circumstances which would justify the presumption of her civil death, the question for decision will be who is the heir next to her, and, as such, entitled to inherit the pension.
