Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 16th May 1876.

Read the following :—

No. 136. From Colonel F. J. B. PRIESTLEY, Superintendent of Revenue Survey, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Chepauk, 26th April 1876, No. 1,197/33.

TRIPLICANE GULAM DUSTAGHIR KHAN was, on 26th May 1859, entertained as a Clerk in the Central Survey Office on a salary of Rupees 12 per mensem.

2. On the 9th December 1871 he was dismissed from the department for refusing to proceed with the Superintendent, Revenue Survey, on a tour of inspection to Ganjam, though on more than one occasion previous to that date he had travelled by sea on duty without demur.

3. On the date of his dismissal he was in receipt of a salary of Rs. 25 per mensem.

4. He was re-entertained in the office on the 9th September 1872 on a salary of Rs. 12 per mensem. Since then up to date he has attended to his duty regularly and endeavoured to give satisfaction in its discharge. His present pay is Rs. 19 a-month.

5. As the above-mentioned act of disobedience in 1871 has been punished by loss of appointment for nine months, reduction in salary when re-entertained, and forfeiture of his past service, extending over a period of twelve and a-half years, I have the honor to recommend in mitigation that Government will be pleased to allow T. Gulam Dustaghir Khan to reckon the period between 26th May 1859 and 8th December 1871 as service towards pension without regard to the break of nine months caused by his dismissal in 1871.

REFERRED to the Accountant-General for report.

OOTACAMUND,
1st May 1876.

Secretary to Government, R.D.

No. 136A. Memorandum from the Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, to the Hon. D. F. CARMICHAEL, Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 14th May 1876, No. 83.

THE undersigned has the honor to report that the period between 26th May 1859 and 8th December 1871 cannot be allowed to reckon as service towards pension, the same having been vitiated by dismissal (vide Section 45 of the Civil Pension Code.)

(Signed) E. RULE,
Officiating Accountant-General.

No. 137.

ORDER THEREON, 16th May 1876, No. 622.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government have frequently ruled that it is inconvenient to consider questions of this nature till the proper time arrives, viz., the submission of pension papers; and the present case is not of an exceptional character. No decision can be passed on the reference.
