No. 140. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 12th April 1876, No. 1,008 :—

Read the following letter from W. S. FOSTER, Esq., Acting Collector of Kurnool, to C. A. GALTON, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Markapur, 17th March 1876, No. 125.

With reference to the Board's Proceedings, No. 9,817, Miscellaneous, dated 1st November 1875, communicating the Order of Government of October 19th No. 1,484, directing me to report whether the Poligar pensioner, Kistna Raz, has come to an arrangement with his uncle, I have the honor to report that he has not. He expresses his willingness to give his uncle half his pension if his uncle gives him a share of the Inam lands and a house. As we have nothing to do with this property, this amounts to a refusal to come to terms about the pension.

2. Mallikarjuna Naidu's widow is dead; he left four sons, Ramappa Naidu, Bhojjappa Naidu, Kistna Raz, Bojarajoo.

3. Of these, the families of Ramappa Naidu and Kistna Raz are quite extinct; Bhojjappa Naidu left a widow, his son Kistna Raz, who is the present pensioner, and Yadava Raz; Bojarajoo is the uncle with whom Kistna Raz will not come to terms.

4. I think the pension should be equally divided between Kistna Raz and Bojarajoo.

SUBMITTED for the orders of Government, with reference to G.O., dated 12th October 1875, No. 1,484.

2. In reference to the claim of Bojarajoo Naidu to a moiety of the Poligar pension of Rupees 49-3-6 a-month registered in the name of his nephew Kistna Raz, the Collector was directed in the Government Order quoted above to warn the latter that, unless he came to some arrangement with his uncle within four months, the pension would be distributed as Government thought fit.

3. The Collector now reports that Kistna Raz has not come to terms with his uncle, and suggests that the pension be equally divided between them. The Board approve of this suggestion. On the death of Mallikarjuna Naidu, the original grantee, the pension was registered* jointly in the names of his widow and the
