Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 4th January 1876.

Read the following papers:—

No. 11. From J. R. COCKERELL, Esq., Commissioner of the Nilgiris, to D. F. CARMICHAEL, Esq., Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Ootacamund, 29th November 1875, No. 90.

By G. O., dated 7th December 1874, No. 1,510, Revenue Department, Major-General Morgan, 1st-class Deputy Conservator of Forests, was permitted to retain his office until the beginning of the current official year. On his retirement, the Mudumallai, Seegur, and Nilgiri forests, which had been constituted into a range, were put in charge of Major (then Captain) Jago, 3rd-class Deputy Conservator.

2. As Captain, the pay of Major Jago was 350 Rs. salary and 150 Rupees travelling allowance per mensem.

3. On the 4th September last, Major Jago obtained his majority.

4. With reference to G. O., dated 9th January 1869, No. 50, which contains a despatch from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India to the following effect:—

“I have considered in Council, your letter, dated the 28th of July last, No. 279, bringing to notice the cases of Lieutenant-Colonels Stainforth and Smith who, by the operation of the rule laid down in the Secretary of State's despatch of the 8th of October 1863, No. 352, have, on obtaining promotion, resigned their appointments in the Public Works and Police Departments, respectively, in consequence of the salary of their appointments being less than the pay of their substantive Military rank.

“2. As instances of this kind will rarely occur, I sanction the adoption of the rule proposed by your Government that in any such exceptional case the difference between the consolidated salary of the appointment and the substantive Military pay of the officer should be paid to him and treated as a Military charge.”

At the end of September Major Jago was permitted by this office to draw 640 Rs., being a Major's pay plus the travelling allowance of Rs. 150.

5. The Accountant-General objects to this scale of pay, observing “inadmissible Major Jago is entitled to the difference between the Civil salary of Rs. 500 and Staff Corps pay as Major Rs. 640-14-6 from 4th to 30th September 1875, at Rs. 140-14-6 a-month.”

6. I have the honor to solicit, with reference to the despatch of the Secretary of State above quoted, that Government will be pleased to direct the Accountant-General to pass Major Jago's pay as calculated by my office.

Under-Secretary to Government.

No. 12. Memorandum from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 4th December 1875, No. 533.

THE undersigned has the honor to refer to G. O. G. No. 3 of 1869, published at page 3 of the G.G., dated 5th January 1869, under which Major Jago can draw only the difference between his consolidated salary, Rs. 500, and his pay of rank, Rs. 640-14-6, in addition to his Civil pay Rs. 500, or in all Rs. 640-14-6.

(Signed) R. W. LODWICK,
Accountant-General.

No. 13.

ORDER THEREON, 4th January 1876, No. 6.

Forests, No. 2.

It is observed that Major Jago's consolidated salary is not Rs. 500 but Rs. 350, and that he draws a travelling allowance of Rs. 150 which, as the Accountant-General should be aware, is expressly excluded from the term "Salary," as defined in the Financial Codes. The present claim must, therefore, be admitted.
