No 48.

To

Collector of Pudducherry

J. A. Galtou Esquire

By

Secretary to the Board of Revenue Madras.

The Government Pleader having died, I appointed to the vacancy Mr. Elliot a Pleader in the Civil Court. After making this appointment I found that Mr. Elliot had not passed in translation required for the Munsiff and Pleader test. Mr. Elliot has practised as a Pleader for 5 years, and during nearly the whole of that time he has conducted very satisfactorily the duties.

duties of a public prosecutor. It is very necessary that the services of a man of his character and attainments should be secured by Government and therefore I request that he may be exempted from passing in translation.

His knowledge of Telugu is good and quite sufficient colloquially to enable him to carry on his work in Court.
