With reference to Board's Proceedings

Gumastahs on 10 Rupees per mensem

records in the Struwilliputtur Taluq,
I have the honor to request early sanction of Government for their re-entertainment for another 3 months in view to the thorough arrangement of the entire records of the Taluq, part of which has not

as yet been touched.

2. The General Charge Deputy Collector (the divisional officer) reports that there were 841 dufters of old records on paper and 110 Cudjau bundles of accounts to be sorted.

The Gunastahs lately employed were able to sort 576 dufters only.

The rest of the records are of a complicated nature and could not the Deputy thinks be arranged in less than 3 months by 3 men.

3. The Tahsildar originally applied for this extra hands for 6 months. The period was reduced to 3 months by the Deputy in the application as passed on by him.

Very

Very rough guess work was necessarily the basis of both Estimates.
