stating the inability of the Madras Government to adopt the course for the reorganization of the settlement made by the said Commission in the matter of certain boundary disputes between the Madras District and Hyderabad Territory, proposed in my letter of 27th 1877 dated 3rd instant, and suggesting that the Government are averse to having given notice in the case, should be presented by the opposite party in the Court of the District Judge.

Government in this case, shall be communicated without delay to the British Government, but Mr. G. Mearns, claims to explain that he never contemplated the arraignment of the Pranadas upon it thought such necessary and then record its opinion as to the propriety of maintaining or otherwise the settlement already made.

3. I am to add that this course

Boarders of his predecessor which of the settlement and his proposal for a fresh inquiry.
