From W. VICTOR HUDLESTON, Esq.,
Wynaad, to D. F. CARMICHAEL,
Government, dated Vythry, 14th December

I HAVE the honor to state that I am requested by the Committee of the "Wynaad Planters' Association" to point out that very great difficulties of land in Wynaad by parties wishing to transfer the impracticability of such parties securing or of the various holdings in some portions instructed to urge on the attention of Government more vigorously than heretofore the survey permanently adjusting such questions and of guarding against the continuance of the disputes, delays, and litigation, which frequently arise from the existing state of affairs.

2. From the progress effected hitherto in the survey and demarcation of the Wynaad, it is feared that some years must yet elapse before even a moiety of the remaining portion of the district is completed, unless Government take the necessary steps for accelerating this important undertaking.

No. 182. ORDER THEREON, 24th January 1876, No. 91.

Miscellaneous.

Communicated to the Board of Revenue and the Superintendent of Revenue Survey, with the request that the information called for in G.O., dated 11th December 1875, No. 1,799, may be furnished with as little delay as possible.

Sir

I have the honor to state that I am requested by the Committee of the Wynand's Association to point out the very great difficulties, uncertainty, and trouble attending the purchase of land in Wynand by parties wishing to deal with natives, and even with Europeans from the impracticability of such parties securing entirely reliable evidence as to the correct boundaries of the various holdings in some portions of the District. Under the circumstances, I am instructed to bring to the attention of Government the pressing importance of pushing forward more vigorously than heretofore, the survey and demarcation of the whole, as a means of permanent adjustment of such
