N^o 5. Trinovelly 6th January 1876.
From, A. J. Stuart Esq
H. Collector

To The Honorable W. Huddleston
Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George

Sir, I have the honor to report that I propose leaving Trinovelly for Madras on the 11th in accordance with instructions issued in consequence of orders of Government by the President of the Forest Commission directing me to appear at the Revenue Board Office Madras, on the 17th.

2. I propose to hand over charge to Mr Glenn, H. Sub Collector, who will arrange temporarily for the work of his own division with the Head Assistant and Assistant Collectors. If I do not hear to the contrary, I shall presume that these arrangements meet the approval of Government.

I have the honor to be
Your most obedt Servt
Stuart
