To

C. S. Galtow Esquire

Ag Secretary to the Board of Revenue
Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that the sanction of Government may be obtained to enable the Decumbant General to pass the charge for the temporary salt guard in this District for a month's employment in excess of the six months allowed by Government.

2. The Monsoon having set in late, salt remained longer than usual both in the pans and the swamps and several thefts occurred. It was accordingly considered necessary to keep the guard on for the additional month.
