Sir,

I have the honor to report for the information of the Court of Wards that Seshu-Sengar, Manager of the Shigpelli Estate, died on the 19th ultimo.

2. Under the Court's Proceedings dated 3rd June 1875, No 1492, the Estate has to be retained under the management till May 1877. I have the honor, therefore, in anticipation of the sanction of the Court and Government appointed Govindas Rao.

For and on behalf of Karnacalar Head Accountant of my office, to the vacant post, the salary of which is Rs 50.

3. In order that the services of Jevindas Row under the Board of Works may count towards pension it is necessary under section 35 of the Civil Pension Rules that he should make a contribution of one-fifth of his salary, that is $\frac{50}{5}$ or 10 Rupees; and therefore, under Board's Proceedings dated 12th February 1872, p. 297. I beg that the Court will be pleased to sanction the disbursement of this sum every month from the funds of the State.

I have &c
