614	Raja Sharaf	5	16 August 1869	Performance of service in the Musjeed in Pallionda in Villor Taluk during Ramzan	From 1st July 1870 to 30 September 1875	26 4	Raja Sharaf regularly drew up to 30 June 1870 his annual allowance of Rs 5-12-10 sanctioned in G.O. dated 16 August 1869, Rs 2344, and it was not paid from 1st July 1870 owing to his non-appearance as per remark entered against his name (No. 1051) in the Printed List of Gromiahs as they stood on the 31st December 1870. He addressed on the 2nd April 1875 an Arji to the Treasury Deputy Collector requesting the payment of this allowance. The Sahibdar of Villor Taluk to whom this Arji was referred for enquiry reports that Raja Sharaf was in the enjoyment of two separate pecuniary allowances, viz, Rs 5-12-10; and Rs 5-4-0 the latter sum was commuted for a grant of land, the Commission thought that the latter sum also would be similarly commuted by Government and did not consequently appear to draw it. The Sahibdar further states that Raja Sharaf had selected lands for the commutation of the one allowance of Rs 5-12-10 only and as he had not then applied for the commutation of the other allowance of Rs 5-4-0 no lands were assigned to him for it. The service in the Musjeed is, however, reported to have been regularly performed by Raja Sharaf since the date from which he ceased to draw this allowance and he was murdered by the Treasury Deputy Collector on the 16 July 1875. Under these circumstances the Collector feels to recommend that the arrears of pension due to him from 1st July 1870 to 30 September 1875 amounting to Rs 26-4-0 may be paid to him, he having been paid on the 16 August 1870 up to 30 June preceding.

Under these circumstances the Collector feels to recommend that the arrears of pension due to him from 1st July 1870 to 30 September 1875 amounting to Rs 26-4-0 may be paid to him, he having been paid on the 16 August 1870 up to 30 June preceding.
