

permit my entertaining
Mr. Pritchard, as when I heard Mr. Miller was to appear for the Plaintiff, I secured Mr. Pritchard's services in anticipation of foul sanitation, or he would have been retained for the other side & as a Harbinger was on the spot & the case a most simple one, it did not occur to me that Mr. Handley's services would be required.

under

No 1012

The Govt. concern, but Mr. Lewis will be deemed not to retain members of the district Bar before being introduced to do so. When he can do so demand the appearance of the Govt. Member at the hearing, he will be able to settle the Western Question to the point in, while the Govt. desire to have some professional advice, but it is a strong demand made in many cases, and
