Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 12th March 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 360.

Miscellaneous.

Dated 12th March 1877, No. 1,029.

THE date on which possession of the land required for the doubling of the railway from Ambatur to Arcot may be taken, by virtue of the notification published in the Fort St. George Gazette of the 27th February 1877, page 146, Part I, being now close at hand, His Grace in Council directs that all the able-bodied among the laborers on the relief works in the Chingleput District be transferred to the above work.

2. The Collector will arrange for their transfer in communication with Mr. Robinson, the Chief Engineer of the Railway.

2. The remaining relief laborers, who will be, for the most part, somewhat weakly, should then be kept at work of a description suited to their strength.

A draft G.O. embodying His Grace the Governor's remarks is herewith circulated. Attention is however requested to the G.O. in the D.P.H. of the 3rd March
No. 73) - It might perhaps suffice if that G.O. was communicated to the Collectors of N. And & Chingleput &
they were directed to stop all road works in the vicinity of the line & transfer the labourers to the latter. The Coll^y of Chingleput being further directed to send all the able bodied labourers from all the ^{he could} ~~trains~~ to the Railway - 10/3/77 J.H.S.
