A. H. Gifford was employed on James Relief sent to Bellamy. To enable him to ~~re-enter~~ join his app's account N. 87 was advanced to him. He went to Bellamy & after being there for a few days returned to home without any report regarding the amount advanced to him. He was again given employment in the turn out & a further advance of 100 N. 65 was made him to aid it, ^{this} being considered the org chance of his being able to work off his original debt.

It now appears probable that Mr. L. has returned with in the same way he did from Dallas, &
about a mile for 22 1/2 m for his travelling expenses.

He is entitled to ~~have~~ have those expenses repaid
by Gov. but as a special call & to decide his debt to
Gov. it is suggested that the bill be passed but the amount of it be credited up to him as Gov.
& that the Gov. Solicitor be directed to sue him for the balance in the State Census Court.
A draft of $ to the above effect (excepting as the instructions
to the Gov. Solicitor)

Perhaps if a resolution sent to the House that if he did not immediately repaid the money advanced then proceedings would be taken against him it might result in his disappearance at least, & consequent cessation from among one of the members of Council, a man whose refusal
