Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
19th March 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 619. Read the following letter from W. H. COMYN, Esq., Acting Collector of South Canara, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government. Revenue Department, dated Manjeshwar, 7th March 1877, No. 373 :—

In reply to your telegram of the 2nd instant, I have the honor to state that there is nothing in the present circumstances of this district to call for any special measures of relief such as are contemplated in the Order of Government, 5th February last, No. 515. No action, therefore, has as yet been taken to give effect to the provisions of paragraphs 9 and 10 relative to relief in villages and the inspection thereof.

2. I have, however, on receipt of the Government Order above referred to called on the Head Assistant Collector to report on the requirements of his division should any necessity arise.

3. The condition and prospects of the district in regard to prices, food-supply, &c., are matters which are engaging my earnest attention. I have made a tour in the Uppenangady Taluq, the jamabandy of which I have completed, and am now engaged in the settlement of Cassergode, the other taluq under the Collector's charge; and this over, I purpose visiting the three taluqs of the Head Assistant's Division.

4. So far I have been unable to discover any indications of distress. Prices have fallen, and there is no likelihood of any pressure until the south-west monsoon, when they will probably rise. In the meantime stray cases of sick and needy travellers are being attended to in accordance with the orders of Government previously received, and the Government may rest assured that should any emergency arise calling for special measures of relief, their instructions on the subject will receive my most careful attention.

Sir,

In reply to your telegram of the 2nd Instant, I have the honor to state that there is nothing in the special circumstances of this District to call for any special measures of relief such as are contemplated in the order of Government, 5th February last No 515. No action therefore has as yet been taken to give effect to the provisions of para 2 and to relations to relief in villages and the inspection thereof.

2. I have, however, on receipt of the Government order above referred to, called on the Head Assistant Collector to report on the requirements of his division should any necessity arise.

3. The condition and prospects of the District in regard to price, food supply &c are matters which are engaging my earnest attention. I have made a tour in the Upperangady Taluq, the jamabandy of which I have completed, and am now engaged in the settlement of Kasergode, the other Taluq under the Collector's charge; and, this over, I shall have visiting the 3 Talugs of the Head Assistant's Division

4 So far, I have been unable to discover any indications of distress. Prices have fallen, and there is no likelihood of any pressure until the South West Monsoon, when they will probably rise. In the meantime stray cases of sick and needy natives are being attended to in accordance with the orders of Government previously received, and the Government may rest assured that should any emergency arise calling for special measures of relief, their instructions on the subject will receive my most careful attention.
