Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 23rd March 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 770. Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq.; Acting Collector of Cuddapah, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated Kodur, 10th March 1877, Extra No. 263:—

Reference to the Order of Government, Revenue Department, NO. 517-A, dated 1st instant, I have the honor to state that if Government has no objection I should prefer the commissioned medical officer mentioned by the Surgeon-General being detailed for general duty.

2. Cholera has now almost disappeared in the Pullampett Taluq, and there is but little small-pox, and I therefore wish to be able to utilise a commissioned medical officer in any part of the district that may appear necessary.

No. 771. ORDER THEREON, 23rd March 1877, No. 1,213.

Miscellaneous.

THE Collector will be informed that a commissioned medical officer will probably shortly be detailed to the Cuddapah District in connection with a scheme of sanitary inspection which is under the consideration of Government.
