Telegram, dated, 15th February 1877, from His Grace the Governor, Madras, to Sir R. Temple, Bellary.

Yours of 13th received. No transactions with Arbuthnot's. You have included in tonnage Collector's purchases for current expenditure as well as Government reserve. Hicks' contract is and has been purely cartage. Madras Government consider it most important to maintain transport arrangements on present lines and organization others. Have already telegraphed Calcutta Government, that no foundation for alleged rumours.
