Famine Relief.

No. 895. Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Madras, dated 19th February 1877, No. 26:—

[illegible] to report that the works now in progress would not suffice, even for three months, for all parts of the district. I am, however, in correspondence with the Superintending Engineer and the Sub-Collector, and have no fear but that those now in contemplation, or that can hereafter be selected, will suffice for all those in need of relief for the next seven months.

2. There is a great deal of river embankment required for the Cortelliar, Naranaveram, and Palar rivers, which, if executed, will be of incalculable benefit to the district during floods, and Colonel Moberly is giving the question his best attention; much, too, is needed in this district under irrigation repairs. Should I however hereafter apprehend failure of employment, I will submit to Government the earliest possible intimation.

No. 896. ORDER THEREON, 28th March 1877, No. 1,264.

Miscellaneous.

COMMUNICATED to the Revenue Board. The widening of the [illegible] subsequently sanctioned will doubtless meet all needs.
