Famine Relief.

No. 945. Read the following letter from L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 27th March 1877, No. 998:—

I HAVE the honor to inquire whether the allowance of Rupees 15 per mensem sanctioned to Hospital Assistants attached to relief camps in the Bellary District in G.O., dated 29th January 1877, No. 389-A, Revenue Department, is to be passed from date of the order, or from the date on which the Hospital Assistants entered upon their famine duties, even though this were anterior to the date of the G.O.

2. A bill has been received in this Office in which the allowance for the whole of December 1876 is charged for one of the Hospital Assistants, and the document bears the counter-signature of Mr. Price, the Additional Sub-Collector in charge of relief-works. I have, however, deferred admitting the Bill till the orders of Government are received.

No. 946. ORDER THEREON, 31st March 1877, No. 1,285-C.

Miscellaneous..

THE allowance alluded to should be passed to the Hospital Assistants from the dates on which they entered on their duties.

No. 998

Fort Saint George,
Accountant General's Office,
27 March 1877

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL
TO THE GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS,

TO THE Additional Secretary to Government
Revenue Department.

SIR,

I have the honor to enquire whether the allowance of Rs 15 per mensem sanctioned to Hospital Assistants attached to Relief Camps in the Bellary District in G.O. dated 29 January 1877 is to be paid from date of the Order or from the date on which the Hospital Assistants entered upon their services, even if they were anterior to the date of the G.O.

A Bill has been received in this office in which the allowance for the whole of December 1876 is charged for one of the Hospital Assistants and the document bears the countersignature of Mr. Price, the Additional Sub Collector in charge of Relief works. I have however deferred admitting the Bill till the Orders of Government are received.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your obedient servant
