Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department,
2nd April 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 8. Read the following letter from J. F. PRICE, Esq., Acting Collector of Cuddapah to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, dated 19th March 1877. No. 361.

reached me yesterday (Sunday), I have the honor to state that it is impossible for me, under a week, to send in a narrative up to the 17th instant.

2. I can of course forward one giving the results of my personal observation and an account of my movements during the past fortnight, but this can apply only to a small section of the district, and I can state nothing reliable until I hear from the other officers.

3. I am moving about in different places and never know how long I shall be in any particular spot, so that if I am to wait for my Divisional Officers' reports, I must be allowed a grace of two or three days after the narrative is due as every thing has to go into Head-quarters first.

4. This might be avoided if every officer was ordered to transmit his report direct to you.

No. 9. ORDER THEREON, 2nd April 1877, No. 1,290.

Miscellaneous.

The narrative can be prepared by Mr. Price's Assistant at Head-quarters or by his Temporary Deputy Collector when he himself is absent. Its punctual submission is of great moment.
