No. 359. From R. DAVIDSON,
Secretary to Government, dated

With reference to your telegram that the grain sent from Kottapatam Farmer states that the grain received reserve, but nevertheless remarks that wages except near Cumbum." I did price return for the week ending higher in the Cumbum Division last week 2 Annas would purchase and Markapoor, while still larger quantity.

2. I have called upon Mr. Farmer that grain wages should continue any longer.

3. Mr. Farmer states that "if the Government they would export rather than supply explain on what data he has formed this omission.

Acting Collector of Kurnool, to the Chief
February 1877, No. 149.

31st ultimo, I have the honor to report Cumbum is being expended as wages. Mr.

Kottapatam may now be stored as a reserve. It will still be necessary to expend grain as wages. I never see why this should be, as, from the instant, it would seem that prices were no higher in the district. At the rates prevailing 6 lbs. of second-sort rice in Cumbum would be had of cholam, ragi or cumbum.

Mr. Farmer explains fully his reasons for considering his division.

Merchants could not sell wholesale to Government retail to coolies." He does not however explain his opinion. He has been requested to supply

No. 360. ORDER THEREON, 21st February 1877, No. 650.

The Government rely on the Acting Collector to see that the "Reserve" rice, which has been sent up to the Subdivision from Kottapatam, is carefully held as a resource to be resorted to only on emergency. Any other course is calculated seriously to discourage private enterprise.
