Treasury Dept. - Directing Collectors & Districts to secure specimens of each of ancient coins for distribution to local and other Museums.

Each find found, & if the coins have been at all injured by being under ground it would be advisable to have several specimens of each as the effaced portions on one may be found on another, & thus facilitate identification. I would also take the liberty of begging that early instructions be given regarding the retention of specimens for the Museum, as I am aware of one instance in which Roman coins were sold after they were in the hands of officials.

I might suggest a telegram. If necessary I will send an official application.

Yours
D. C. C.

Wm. D. I. Carmichael
Chief of Dept.

I send the above extract from a local paper. I will esteem it a great favour if you will kindly take the necessary steps to secure specimens of the Comis for the Museum.
He should at least have one perfect specimen of
