Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 15th January 1877.

No. 291. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 4th December 1876, No. 3,058:—

Read the following letter from Colonel W. H. HESSEY, Superintendent of Revenue Survey, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Acting Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Chepauk, 27th November 1876, No. 3,685-117.

In G.O., No. 1,398, of the 2nd October 1876, Government requested the Board of Revenue to take the necessary steps to have the south-east boundary of Nambalacode from Aratapara to its junction with the boundary between Nambalacode and Ernad Proceedings, 18th October 1876, No. 8,943.

Taluqs defined. In communicating this order, the Revenue Board call on me to report as to the arrangements which had best be made.

2. In his letter of the 16th September 1875, No. 2,732-115, Colonel Priestley suggested, in order to facilitate survey operations in Wynaad, the appointment of a civil officer to settle all boundary disputes in advance of the demarcation party, and to assist in the supply of labor. The Proceedings, Board of Revenue, No. 2,891, of 16th October 1875. Revenue Board supported the proposal, and suggested that Mr. Herbert Richardson should be deputed to this duty, and stated that his knowledge of the country and other qualifications would render his services very valuable. No orders have as yet been received on the recommendation.

3. I have the honor to request that the Board will be pleased to address Government again on the subject, in view that Mr. Richardson may be deputed, in conjunction with a Survey Officer, to proceed to Wynaad early next season to make the necessary investigations as to the boundary of Nambalacode. The Deputy Superintendent, No. 1 Revenue Survey, will be instructed to have the line as defined by Mr. Richardson surveyed and mapped.

4. I trust that the arrangement above proposed will meet with the approval of the Revenue Board.

SUBMITTED to Government with reference to the Government Order quoted.

2. In Board's Proceedings, dated 15th October 1875, No. 2,891, the Board suggested that Mr. H. Richardson should be appointed to settle disputes in advance of the survey in Wynaad, but Government (G.O., 11th December 1875, No. 1,799) deferred orders pending further report from the Superintendent. This was furnished, but in the final orders on the subject (G.O., 22nd September 1876, No. 1,317) Government, while directing that the survey should be regularly proceeded with, did not notice the Board's suggestion.

3. Mr. Richardson's services would be especially valuable in connection with the Nambalacode boundary settlement, and the Board strongly support Colonel Hessey's present recommendation.
