No. 104. Read the following petition from DESAYEE BALAKRISTNARAS, son of DESAYEE NARAYANAPAH, the 1st Head Sheristadar of the Board of Revenue and Pensioned Taluq Sheristadar of Kadiry in the Cuddapah District, now residing in Kasba Volud, in the same district, to the Most Noble His Grace the Governor Council, Fort St. George, dated 9th February 1877:—

ABSTRACT.—Brings to notice that his father was granted a pension for three lives on account of his meritorious service; that on his death the pension was first granted to his eldest son, and after him his second son, Ramappa, on whose death, in March 1869, the pension had been deemed to have lapsed to Government; but that they will see that when the pension was granted to second life, i.e., to petitioner's eldest brother, petitioner was entitled to one-fifth of it under the Hindu Law, as their father left five sons; that petitioner's case is similar to that of Bhujanga Row, who is one of the grandsons of the late Butcha Row, the Head Sheristadar of Cuddapah District, and to whom the Government have granted by G.O., dated 19th January 1876, No. 79, his share of the shrotriem which he enjoys. Prays, therefore, that petitioner's share of the pension may be renewed in his name.

No. 105. ORDER THEREON, 4th April 1877, No. 1,327.

Miscellaneous.

The Government consider that the petitioner has no claim to consideration. The pension was expressly for three lives, not heirs, which has been interpreted to mean generations. Apart from this the Government expressly stated, when the pension was continued to the third life, that it should entirely lapse on his death.

From the Order of the Honorable the Court of Directors, dated 28th October 1855, at No. 19, it appears that the pension was granted to Ootaranappa, the late Head Shenistadar in the Office of the Board of Revenue for three lines, and from the Order of Government dated 13th May 1852 it appears that the pension of Rs. 37. 8. per mensem was continued to Desai Ramappa the 2^d son of O. Charanappa from 11th April 1852, the date of the demise of the eldest son and that the pension should lapse entirely on the death of the said Ramappa.
The last incumbent having died in March 1869, the pension lapsed from that date.

 As the pension was granted by the Honorable the last incumbent, the Collector is unable to do anything in favor of the petitioner.

It does not seem to me that there is any grievance here - The grant was for 3 lives & three successive persons enjoyed it - in full these must be accepted as the selected lives of the family - 19/5/76

I quite concur. The grant was for three lives - not ~~three~~ but Govt. has 432. has interpreted generations of it as three & did not in for orders there is an express order in this case. inoperative of the original grant

Brings to notice - that his father was granted a pension for three lives on account of his meritorious services, that on his death, the pension was first granted to his eldest son and after him to his second son Ramappa, on whose death in March 1869, the pension has been declared to have lapsed to Govt.; but that they will see that when the pension was granted this case would have been

 "an all fours" with the case reported to 4 Ptn (in letter to Secy of State No 6 1875 - 11th May) but for the fact that when it was continued to the 3rd life - Ramappa - Govt.
 expressly stated that the pension would "lapse entirely" on his death (G.O. 19 May 1852) - Petitioner cannot to second life i.e. to petitioner's eldest brother, petitioner was entitled to one fifth of it under the Hindu Law as their father left five sons; that petitioner's case is similar to that of Bhujanga Row, who is one of the grandsons of the late Butcha

Row, the Head Sherista:
dar of Cuddapah
District and to whom the Govt. have granted by G. O., dated 19th Jan'y 1876 No 79, his share of the stipend which he enjoys.

Prays, therefore,
that petitioner's share of the pension may be renewed in his name.
