SIR,

IN continuation of my letter No. 8, dated the 13th January 1877, I am directed to say that the Governor-General in Council considers it is an error to subject rope and twine made of jute, on import into India, to duty under No. 37 of the Import Tariff Schedule. These articles are exempt from duty under No. 14 of the Schedule, and I am to request that instructions may issue to all Officers of Customs that no duty is to be levied on them.

2. I am also to invite attention to the Notification No. 70, dated the 21st instant, which will be published in the Gazette of India of the 24th idem, declaring that gunny bags and gunny cloth are free from duty on import into British India.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,
