From

J. G. Horsfall Esquire

Acting Collector of South Arcot

To

Madras.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that C. Srinivassiengar, Deputy Tahsildar and Sub Magistrate of Trivadi, having applied to me for 3 months privilege leave or leave on on private affairs for 6 months on urgent business. I have granted privilege leave to him as he was entitled to it.

2. As both Magisterial and Revenue work is very heavy in this Division and as it was moreover, inexpedient, owing to the present state of the District that the Taluq should be left short-handed, I have appointed P. Ramachari, Taluq Sheristadar of Villupuram, who was acting at Trivadi for upwards of a year and was only relieved by Srini=vassiengar on the 12th Instant, to to continue to act there during Srinivassiengar's absence on leave.

3. I have therefore the honor to request the Board's sanction to this arrangement under Stand=ing Order No. 23 of 1874.

4. I may add that the leave to Srinivassiengar was granted and the arrangement in question made before the receipt of the Fort Saint George Gazette of the 15th Instant in which I find an order of Government prohibiting the grant of privilege leave or furlough except under exceptional Circumstances
