Famine Relief.

No. 196-C. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 3rd April 1877 :—

Read the following letter from J. GROSE, Esq., Collector of Nellore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Nellore, 26th March 1877, No. 1,340.

As several temporary hands have to be appointed in this district for the conduct of public duty during the present distress, it has been found difficult to adhere strictly to the Examination Rules in filling up such appointments. The few passed men who are available here are either unwilling to proceed to the interior for employment on famine duties, or unequal to the requirements.

2. I have the honor, therefore, to request that I may be permitted to entertain unpassed men in posts of Rs. 20 and more, whenever the exigencies of the service render such a step necessary.

SUBMITTED for the sanction of Government. Like relaxation of Rule has been permitted in the Ceded Districts.

No. 196-D. ORDER THEREON, 9th April 1877, No. 1,372-B.

Miscellaneous.

THE Government sanction the relaxation of the Rule in the Nellore District during the famine; but passed men must proceed to such duties and places as they are appointed to without hesitation, otherwise they cannot expect to advance in the service or even to remain in it.

Sir,
As several temporary hands have to be appointed in this District for the conduct of public duty during the present distress, it has been found difficult to adhere strictly to the Examination rules in filling up such appointments. The few passed men who are available here, are either unwilling to proceed to the interior for employment on famine duties, or unequal to the requirements.

2. I have the honor, therefore, to request that I may be permitted to entertain unpassed men in posts of Rs 20 and more, whenever the exigencies of the service render such a step necessary.
Nellore, Collector's Office
