Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 11th April 1877.

Famine Relief.

No. 238-A. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 31st March 1877:—

Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 27th March 1877, No. 105.

WITH reference to Revenue Board's Proceedings, of 13th March 1877, I have the honor to inform you that the expenditure on relief-works up to the 24th instant amounted to Rupees 1,89,490, leaving only Rupees 10,510 of the lump grant already sanctioned. I have the honor accordingly to request that a further grant of one lakh of rupees be sanctioned.

2. I take this opportunity of inquiring, with special reference to Rule 7 in Revenue Board's Proceedings, No. 1, of 2nd January 1877, whether the lump grant sanctioned is to cover the actual outlay on works, or the debits on account of them in the treasury. I find it necessary, in order to obviate inconvenience, to place Tahsildars and other relief officers in funds; about Rupees 40,000 outstanding in this way. If these advances are to be covered by the lump grant, this might be about half a lakh over and above the estimated outlay for a fortnight.

3. The effect of the Board's Proceedings initially quoted declining to sanction a further grant of half a lakh then applied for has been that, while the actual expenditure is Rupees 10,510 short of the lump grant, the treasury debits have exceeded it by Rupees 26,192.

A GRANT of Rupees 1,00,000 is sanctioned as applied for.

2. The grants are regulated with reference to actual expenditure, and the practice of debiting to famine relief money placed at the disposal of Tahsildars and others should cease. There should be no separate balances of famine funds, but officers should expend money as wanted to the extent of funds placed at their disposal.
