Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 14th April 1877.

No. 317. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd April 1877:—

Read again G.O., dated 10th March 1877, No. 1,012, recorded in Board's Proceedings, dated 17th March 1877, Miscellaneous No. 3,961.

A CIRCULAR order will be issued directing Collectors not to retain members of the District Bar before being instructed to do so.

2. As regards the concluding part of the Government Order, the Board respectfully submit that it is hardly necessary that the Government Pleader should be consulted and asked to prepare the answer in all but very simple cases; and that the adoption of this course will increase correspondence and cause delay in the disposal of emergent cases, in which there is usually little time to spare. There are many cases which, though not very simple, involve various points of Revenue administration with which the Board are familiar, and there would be little or no advantage in referring such matters to the Government Pleader. It has hitherto been usual to consult him in all cases in which there is any doubt or difficulty, and as no evil has resulted from the present practice, the Board request, as regards cases which they are authorized to dispose of without reference to Government, that it may as hitherto be left to their discretion whether or not to seek the advice of the Government Pleader. The Board may point to the high proportion of suits brought against Government which are decided in its favor to show that the present system works well.

Miscellaneous.

By "simple suits" the Government meant to indicate suits in which there was no new point of law, outside the Board's experience; but the Government are satisfied and leave matters to the Board's discretion.

G. O. of 10 March 1877 No. 1012 recorded in Board's Proceedings of 17th March 1877 No. 3961

A Circular Order will be issued directing Collectors not to retain numbers of the District Board before being instructed to do so.

As regards the concluding part of the G. O. the Board respectfully submit that it is hardly necessary that the Government Pleader should be consulted and asked to prepare the answer in all but very simple cases; and that the adoption of this course will increase correspondence

And Cause delay in the disposal of Emergent Cases in which there is usually little time to spare. There are many Cases which though not very simple involve various points of Revenue administration with which the Board are familiar and there would be little or no advantage in referring such matters to the Government Pleader. It has hitherto been usual to consult him in all Cases in which there is any doubt or difficulty and as no evil has resulted from the present practice the Board request as regards Cases which they are authorized to dispose of without reference to Government that it may as hitherto be left to their discretion whether or not to seek the advice of the Government Pleader.

The Board may point to the high proportion of suits brought against Government which are decided in its favour to show that the present system works well.
