Madras, 5th June 1879.

My dear Mr Gordon

Recollect in Bengal we in Bombay formerly do exist officers during hostages - As a rule they use Government tents, which are kept in repair and renewed at Government expense -

Yours

The Govt. of India
already decided that the Bengal Govt. should have allowances as now
given in Bengal.

The Accts. Pr

1/3 Mr. Consult. Engr.

The Govt. of India have telegraphed information

as to the allowance
given, but no
reply has been received.
The Govt. are now
in question of tentage.
In Bengal, Madras,
tents are supplied
gratis by Govt. in which case no deduction
on account of tentage
is allowed.
In the Bombay

14/2 have not brought tents from Bengal
with us, a few tents,
supplied with tents
from Govt. when necessary. It seems doubtful therefore whether any order regarding tentage is required.
