Famine Relief.

No. 458-A. Read the following letter from L. C. PROBYN, Esq., Accountant-General, Madras, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Fort St. George, 12th April 1877, No. 49:—

I HAVE the honor to state that Lieutenant S. P. C. Scott, a Famine Officer under the Commissioner of Police, Madras, claims difference of allowance between Rupees 250 per month fixed for him in G.O., No. 841, dated 6th March 1877, Financial, and Rs. 300 per month under G.O., No. 990, dated 8th idem, Revenue, with arrears from 17th February 1877, the date on which he entered upon Famine duty, and to request that I may be favored with the orders of Government as to whether the higher rate is to be passed. Captain Wilson, M.S.C., is similarly situated.

I have deferred admitting the claim pending the orders of Government upon his reference.

No. 458-B. ORDER THEREON, 19th April 1877, No. 1,480-A.

Miscellaneous.

THE Governor in Council considers that G.O., No. 990, of March 8th, 1877, applies to the cases of Captain Wilson and Lieutenant Scott. The Accountant-General will, therefore, pass to them the difference between what they have drawn as extra famine allowance and what they are entitled to under the above Government Order with retrospective effect from the respective dates on which they joined their appointments.
