GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

28th February 1877, No. 257.

Civil Servants.

Read the following paper:—

No. 139. From D. S. WHITE Esq., Secretary to the Committee for the Examination of Assistants, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 16th February 1877, No. 1891.

I have the honor, by direction of the President, to report, for the information of Government, the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants held on the 18th December last and following days.

2. For the Higher Standard there were four candidates, Messrs. S. H. Wynne, J. H. A. Tremenhere, J. D. Rees, and A. H. T. Martindale. They have all passed excepting Mr. Martindale who failed in Division D alone. The Revenue Examiner remarks that Mr. Tremenhere "acquitted himself creditably considering the short time he has been out." One of the Judicial Examiners, Mr. Weir, remarks of Mr. Tremenhere's Evidence paper, the "answering is very superior." He adds that "all the examinees have done well." Although Mr. Martindale has failed in D, his paper on the Criminal Procedure Code, Division B, is described as "very good."

3. For the Lower Standard there were six candidates, Messrs. F. H. Hebbert, W. M. Thorburn, H. H. O'Farrell, G. F. T. Power, J. P. Fiddian, and A. Thompson. Mr. Hebbert has passed in Divisions B, C, and D, having passed in Division A at the previous examination. Mr. Thorburn has passed in B and C Mr. O'Farrell in B, having passed in C at the previous examination. Mr. Power has failed. Mr. Fiddian has failed in B, but he has passed in A, and he passed in C and D at the previous examination. Mr. Thompson took up only Divisions B and C, and he has passed in them.

4. Mr. Weir, one of the Judicial Examiners, considers Mr. O'Farrell's Criminal Procedure paper to be a "good" one. Mr. Thompson's answering in the same subject, he says, is "very superior."

5. It is to be noted in connexion with the partial failure of Messrs. Thorburn, O'Farrell, and Fiddian, and with the failure of Mr. Power, that they arrived only in 1875; but the President desires to bring to the special notice of Government the result of Mr. Thompson's examination. This young Civilian arrived only on the 20th November last, and yet he has not only passed in the subjects he took up, but he has gained the special commendation of one of the Judicial Examiners.

6. The President directs me to request that the increased allowance of Rupees 175 per mensem may be granted to Messrs. Wynne, Tremenhere, and Rees from the 20th December last, the date on which the examination concluded.

No. 140. ORDER THEREON, 28th February 1877, No. 257.

Communicated to the Revenue Department.

2. The allowance of Rupees 175 per mensem will be disbursed to Messrs. Wynne, Tremenhere, and Rees from the 20th December 1876.

3. Their success and that of Messrs. Martindale and Thompson is very creditable.
