Famine Relief.

No. 549. Read the following letter from R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Sydapett, 17th March 1877, No. 41:—

Your demi-official of the 14th instant, only reached me lastnight, having been despatched to Chingleput and redirected here. Stringent orders have long since been issued by me to Tahsildars to inform all village Munsifs that they will be held responsible for actual cases of starvation occurring in their respective limits; and that when persons are in danger of starvation or in great distress they are to be fed and cared for till strong enough to be passed on to the nearest camp, work, or cusbah, as may be most convenient; and that village officers will be reimbursed for any necessary expenditure on bills being submitted by them. I have explained this order myself to numerous heads of villages, and such bills are being frequently sent in.

2. As regards the Sembiam Munsif, I am unable to state specifically when and through whom these orders were communicated to him by the Tahsildar, but I have called for information.

No. 550. ORDER THEREON, 23rd April 1877, No. 1,526.

Sir,

Your Despatch of the 14th Instant only reached me last night, having been despatched to Chingleput and redirected here. Stringent orders have long since been issued by me to Tahsildars to inform all Village Munsiffs, that they will be held responsible for actual cases of starvation occurring in their respective limits, and that when persons are in danger of starvation or in great distress, they are to be fed and cared for till strong enough to be passed on to the nearest Camp, work, or Cusbat, as may be most convenient, and that village officers will be reimbursed for any necessary expenditure on bills being submitted by them. I have explained this order myself to numerous heads of villages, and such bills are being frequently sent in.

2. As regards the Senbiem Memsiff
I am unable to state specifically, when and through whom, these orders were communicated to him by the Tachisdar,
but I have called for information.
