No. 462. From W. DONALD, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 21st February 1877, No. 829.

Audit Department.

With reference to Proceedings of the Madras Government, No. 622, dated 19th February 1877, Financial, I have the honor to inquire if the Order contained in the above-mentioned Proceedings may be accepted as a general rule for the guidance of this office in the audit of claims for travelling allowance preferred by members of the Bengal Civil Service and the Military and Medical Officers deputed to Madras on Famine duty. I beg also that I may be informed whether the term "actual travelling expenses" is to include the freight or railway charge for a horse or tents, if officers should bring their horses or tents with them.

No. 463. ORDER THEREON, 27th February 1877, No. 738.

The Accountant-General is authorized to pass to all officers sent to Madras on special "Famine" duty their actual travelling expenses including freight for horses and tents if brought with them.
