Famine Relief.

No. 652A. Read the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated 19th April 1877, No. 221-1,162D:—

I HAVE the honor to request you will inform me what is meant by "usual market price" mentioned in G.O., No. 1,091, dated 15th ultimo, whether the ordinary price at which cloths were sold before the famine or before the market became dull, or whether the value of the materials plus the usual cooly or cost of labor of production of cloth is to be taken as such. The market value of cloths has been often changing according to demand, and has been at sometimes in excess of and at others below the actual value of materials and cost of labor.

No. 652B. ORDER THEREON, 26th April 1877, No. 1,560A.

Miscellaneous.

By "usual market price" was meant the price which is ordinarily paid in the district for a piece of the kind produced

He holds "usual market rate" on the "poison" as "renew" of the price the Govt. Perhaps it might be explained that the "market rate of the day" or "for what they will fetch" was wanted. reasons are requested

J. H. F

There are 2 things to be done - 1st to give the weaver the value of his toil 2nd to see the clothes for Govt.

for the first an immediate adjustment is necessary - I understand the price will be noted very low from inability to purchase things I said let them be taken at the ordinary market rate - price which must surely be well known in the district - and is as surely remembered in excess of labour + material - then when an opportunity offers the speculation will take place for what the clothes will fetch having looked after losses again - The Jews tell me that price of clothes - men & women has not fallen for a long time here + so it see from Salem either suggestion of certainly people the Jews do not see any more but in place than I see 2 1/2
