Famine Relief.

No. 652A. Read the following letter from C. T. LONGLEY, Esq., Collector of Salem, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Fort St. George, dated 19th April 1877, No. 221-1,162D:—

I HAVE the honor to request you will inform me what is meant by "usual market price" mentioned in G.O., No. 1,091, dated 15th ultimo, whether the ordinary price at which cloths were sold before the famine or before the market became dull, or whether the value of the materials plus the usual cooly or cost of labor of production of cloth is to be taken as such. The market value of cloths has been often changing according to demand, and has been at sometimes in excess of and at others below the actual value of materials and cost of labor.

No. 652B. ORDER THEREON, 26th April 1877, No. 1,560A.

Miscellaneous.

By "usual market price" was meant the price which is ordinarily paid in the district for articles of the kind produced by the weavers working under relief advances.
