Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department.

28th April 187.

Famine Relief.

No. 696A. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th April 1877 :—

Read the following letter from J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Boodali, 7th April 1877, No. 200.

With reference to the rules for the audit of the accounts of famine relief works contained in the Proceedings of the Board, No. 766, dated the 21st February last, I have the honor to forward copy of a letter received from Mr. Howe, in which he states that his bills for previous months cannot be prepared before the 7th May.

Enclosure No. 1.

From W. HOWE, Esq., Divisional Officer, Bellary Taluq, to J. H. MASTER, Esq., Collector of Bellary, dated 2nd March 187[illegible], No. 723.

With reference to Board's audit rules, I have the honor to report that it will be quite impossible to submit bills for the month of March on 7th proximo, as ordered in the last paragraph of the rules, because before this can be done the accounts must be prepared month by month in accordance with the present rules, and bills prepared for each month from the very beginning.

2. In accordance with your instructions I have entertained the necessary audit establishment, and I shall be very shortly prepared to submit bills from time to time for the preceding months commencing from October 1876, but I shall not be able to give these bills for each month previous to the current month (as directed in the rules) till 7th May.

3. I request the favor of this arrangement being sanctioned.

Communicated to the Accountant General for information.

2. The Board regret to find that the accounts were so backward that this delay cannot be avoided. The Collector is requested to make every effort to bring up the arrears of the work throughout the district.
