Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 111-A. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 17th April 1877.

Read the following letter from W. S. WHITESIDE, Esq., Collector of North Arcot, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Cangoondy, 5th April 1877, No. 222.

In acknowledging receipt of the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, without number, dated 3rd instant, I have the honor to report that I propose that the direct supervision of the relief-house at Arni shall, in future, rest with the Deputy Tahsildar on the spot, assisted by the District Munsif, whose Court is held there. The Deputy Collector on general duties, whose head-quarters are at Arni, will also supervise the institution when he is not on tour in his division.

2. The rules which have been laid down for the guidance of the Deputy Tahsildar at Arconum in the management of the relief-house there, will be communicated to the officials at Arni, and they will be required to take care that none but really deserving objects of charity are fed. The chief distress at Arni is felt by the weavers, whose trade has for some time been almost at a standstill; but to these people I am now giving work in weaving coarse cloths for issue to the poorest and worst-clad inmates of our relief-camps, and they will not, in future, be admitted, as has hitherto been the case, to the relief-house for a share in the daily dole.

Submitted to Government in continuation of the Board's Proceedings quoted.

2. The Board do not anticipate that the Jaghiredar will assent to the proposed interference by Government officers. He merely offers in his letter to send account particulars of his receipts and charges.

3. The Board, on further consideration, think that it will be sufficient to give the Jaghiredar a grant-in-aid of Rs. 100 as the equivalent of his contribution and leave him to continue the charity without interference on the part of Government officers with the one proviso that he issues permanent tickets to those poor persons whom he wishes to feed.

Miscellaneous.

The Government consider that the Jaghiredar should have been consulted as to whether he had any objection to the expenditure of the Government grant being supervised in the manner proposed by the Collector. He would probably have met the Collector's wishes.

2. Mr. Whiteside will, therefore, adopt this course, and, if the Jaghiredar agrees to his proposals, will act on them.
