Proceedings of the Madras Government, Revenue Department, 8th May 1877.

No. 150. Read the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 2nd May 1877, Miscellaneous No. 6,464:—

Read the following letter from H. MORRIS, Esq., to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Eastcote House, St. John's Park, Blackheath, 23rd March 1877.

I HAVE the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the Board's Proceedings, No. 168, dated 16th January, and I cordially thank the Board of Revenue for recommending, and the Government for granting, £150 instead of Rupees 1,000 as the limit on the expense of publishing the Manual of the Godavery District.

2. The printing is rapidly progressing. I have received the proofs of 15 sheets, which brings the work down to pages 240; and I have sent a copy of each fair sheet, as it has been received, to you, so that the Board may be aware how matters are progressing.

3. I decided on having 200 copies printed for publication in England solely at the request and at the advice of the publishers, who stated that these additional copies would cost very little more than the value of the paper on which they are printed. Trusting that the work will soon be satisfactorily completed, I remain, &c.

SUBMITTED for the information of Government.
