REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

21st May 1877, No. 1,767.

Famine Relief.

Read the following paper:—

No. 390. Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 7th May 1877.

Read the following letter from A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to H. E. STOKES, Esq., Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated 28th April 1877, No. 144.

I HAVE the honor to submit, for the decision of Government through the Board of Revenue, an application from Mr. J. H. Cook, my Special Assistant in charge of State relief-works in Oodumulpettah and Pollachy, for the double horse allowance allowed in G.O., No. 128, of 15th January 1877, Financial Department, to temporary Famine Relief Officers on being certified that it is necessary for them to keep two horses. I can certify that Mr. Cook requires two horses to do his work, especially as he has now two taluqs to look after, relief-works having now been opened in Pollachy and numerous relief-houses as well as works in Oodumulpettah. I therefore recommend that, if admissible, the concession may be extended to Mr. Cook.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From A. WEDDERBURN, Esq., Collector of Coimbatore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, Oodumulpettah, 7th April 1877, No. 71.

IN G.O., No. 128, of 15th January 1877, the Government have sanctioned that a temporary Famine Relief Officer drawing horse allowance can draw double allowance on being certified by the Collector that it is necessary for that officer to have two horses.

2. Though I have not been an officer drawing horse allowance, yet, as it is actually necessary for me to keep two horses, I have the honor respectfully to request that this concession may also be obtained in my case and double horse allowance paid to me.

3. My work, as you are aware, necessitates constant inspection, and I have so almost knocked up one horse that I have found it requisite to purchase another.

MR. COOK'S ordinary salary is fixed on the supposition that he would keep a horse, and the Board think that, as his work undoubtedly requires that he should keep two, allowance for one horse might be passed to him in addition to his present pay. The sanction of Government is requested for this.
