Fort Saint George,
Accountant General's Office,
27 March 1877

From The ACCOUNTANT GENERAL to the GOVERNMENT of MADRAS.

To The Offg Chief Secretary to Government
Fort Saint George

Sir,

With reference to Government Order Revenue Department No. 1565 dated 17th March 1877 advising the reduction of Peishcush payable by the Poligar of Nandyanti I have the honor to suggest that as this Office does not check or maintain statements of demand, Collection and balance of land revenue, the Orders of Government conveying similar sanctions be not in future communicated to it. A return of actual collections is rendered monthly by this Department to the Board of Revenue to check with Statements sent by Collectors.

I have the honor to be
Sir
Your obedient servant
