Proceedings of the Board of Rev:

Dated 22d March 1877

Read the following:-

No. 56. A.

Board's
G. O. No.
2711.

From W. Logan Esquire
Collector of Malabar

To A. E. Stokes Esquire
Secretary to the Bd of Rev.
Madras

Sir,

I have the honor to request you will be good enough to inform me whether the Famine Batta† due to the village and Local Fund servants, paid from Special and Local Funds respectively, should be borne by those Funds or debited to "Famine Relief" with reference to the Accountant Genl's circular No. 12, dated 11th Jany 1877

copy

† under G. O. No. 41 of 5th January 1877

copy enclosed.

2. I am of opinion that as the servants are paid from Special or Local Funds, the charges in connection with their Famine Batta should be provided from those sources.

Malabar Collectors office
Cochin 10th March 1877

I have &c
(S) W. Logan
Collector

It has been ruled that Famine Batta is not to be given to village Servants.

2. That to local fund Servants is to be charged to the local funds, and is to be granted if

if the funds can afford it.
1826 2/2
The matter should be brought before the Local Fund Board.
