No. 527-A. From R. W. BARLOW, Esq., Collector of the Chingleput District, to J. H. GARSTIN, Esq., Additional Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Sydapet, 21st May 1877, No. 97.

LIEUTENANT LOCKYER, R.A., in demi-official of yesterday, forwards certain remarks by His Grace the Governor on inspecting the Cortelliar camp immediately after the recent cyclone. At No. 10 of these it is ordered: "if possible, a few Sappers will be sent for duty to get the camp restored."

2. There are large numbers of destitute in this camp which suffered severely during the recent storm, and four deaths resulted from falling huts. Major Murray, under my directions, has deputed as many men as he could spare, who understood the construction of huts, from the Tirumushi camp, to help Lieutenant Lockyer; but if a few Sappers could be sent as well, it would be a very great assistance.
